The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 9. to Saturday April 13. 1734.

Whitehall, April 11.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable Sir Robert Walpole, and Waller Bacon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Celebration of the happy Nuptials of the Princeſs Royal with his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, with Minds fill'd with that Joy which inſpires and warms the Heart of every true Briton on this great Event: An Event, which portends the utmoſt Happineſs to theſe Kingdoms which the Divine Providence has called your Majeſty to rule over.

The giving a Daughter of Great Britain to the Houſe of Orange, will remain a laſting Memorial in the Britiſh Annals of your Majeſty's great Concern for the ſecuring what your loyal Subjects eſteem invaluable, the peaceable Enjoyment of their religious and civil Rights.

When your Majeſty compleated this Alliance, you gave the Princeſs the greateſt Happineſs, and your Subjects received the greateſt Pleaſure, in ſeeing a Prince of that Houſe, whoſe immortal Glory it is to be the Defenders of the Liberties of Europe, ſo nearly related to your Majeſty; a Prince of the ſame illuſtrious Lineage with our great Deliverer King William, who ſav'd us when we were very near becoming a Prey to the lawleſs Power and bigotted Zeal of an arbitrary King; an Æra too recent, and a Deliverance too great to be forgot, or but barely remembred, or coldly mentioned, as it ſeems to be by a Part of your Majeſty's Subjects, who at this time are fond, vainly fond, of being called the only Lovers of their Country.

Our Conſtitution, the Envy of all our Neighbours, is now by your Majeſty's great Care, and the Wiſdom of your Councils, in its full Vigour; and our Properties will always be ſecure, when guarded by a Prince whoſe higheſt Pleaſure it is to be the Father of all his People, and who eſteems it his greateſt Glory to fix the Eſtabliſhment of their Liberties on ſuch Foundations as may render them ſecure to future Generations.

Given under our common Seal this 5th Day of April, 1734.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Council-men, Gentlemen, and Freemen, of the Town and Port of Dover, in the County of Kent, hath been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Middleſex, and the Right Honourable the Lord Hardwicke, Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of King's Bench. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Council-men, Gentlemen, and Freemen, of the Town and Port of Dover, in the County of Kent.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Council-men, Gentlemen, and Freemen, of your ancient and loyal Town and Port of Dover, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the happy Nuptials of the Princeſs Royal with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

The many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe, mild, and auſpicious Government, and the paternal Care ſhewn throughout out the whole Courſe of your Reign, for the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, fill our Hearts with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs. And we cannot but eſteem the Concluſion of this Marriage as proceeding from the ſame gracious Diſpoſition in your Royal Mind, extended to ſecure the Felicity of your People to late Poſterity, even againſt remote Contingencies.

When we conſider that the original Foundation of all this publick Happineſs was laid long ago, by a Marriage concluded with an illuſtrious Prince of your Majeſty's auguſt Houſe; that the ſignal Benefits reſulting from thence were ſecured and brought home to us by a Prince of Orange, our great Deliverer King William the Third, who, as he reſcued our Liberties by the late glorious Revolution, eſtabliſhed them by the preſent Settlement of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, our Joy and Satisfaction on this Occaſion riſe ſtill higher.

From ſuch an Union of your Majeſty's eldeſt Daughter, a Princeſs univerſally admired for the moſt amiable Qualities and conſummate Merit, with a Prince of Orange, not only inheriting the Titles, but all the Virtues of that renowned Family, we cannot but preſage the happieſt Conſequences.

Under all theſe Ties of Duty and Gratitude, permit us, with the moſt devoted Hearts, to preſent to your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our unfeigned Zeal and Affection for your Sacred Perſon and Royal Family (the ſolid Foundation of all we enjoy or hope for) and of our conſtant unwearied Endeavours to promote, to the utmoſt of our Power, the Happineſs and Repoſe of your Government, whilſt at the ſame Time we offer up our ſincereſt Prayers to Almighty God, that He will grant your Majeſty a long and glorious Reign over an obedient and free People.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrats, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Campbell, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the ſaid City. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrats, and Council of the City of Edinburgh.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrats, and Counſellors Ordinary and Extraordinary of the City of Edinburgh, in Common Council aſſembled, do humbly beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity of the happy Concluſion of the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal to his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, to expreſs our utmoſt Satisfaction with an Alliance ſo univerſally agreeable to all your People. We owe it to your Majeſty's great Goodneſs to us, that we are once more ſo cloſely united with a Prince of the illuſtrious Houſe of Naſſau, a Houſe ſo remarkably famed for Heroes who have eminently diſtinguiſhed themſelves by their great Wiſdom and Valour in the Defence of publick Liberty, and in the Defence and Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt of Europe.

We at the ſame time moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs our moſt juſt and grateful Senſe of our own Happineſs under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, that the manifold Bleſſings derived to theſe Nations by our glorious Deliverer King William the Third of immortal Memory, now are, (as they only could have been) ſecured to us and our Poſterity, by the Eſtabliſhment of the Crown of theſe Realms in your Majeſty's Royal Family. Happy ſhall we be, while we entertain a juſt Senſe of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild Government of ſo good and gracious a Sovereign, who by every Act of his Adminiſtration, appears evidently to place his greateſt Glory in the Happineſs of his People.

May the great God of Heaven and Earth continue to direct your Majeſty's Councils, and to bleſs with Succeſs your inceſſant Care for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People; may your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous; and may all your Subjects, on their Part, contribute to their own Happineſs, by a loyal and dutiful Behaviour becoming Partakers of ſo many Mercies; and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Family to ſway the Sceptre over us to lateſt Poſterity. This is the moſt earneſt and fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects and Servants,
The Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrats, and Counſellors of your City of Edinburgh.

Signed in their Name, and by their Appointment. P. Lindeſay, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Freeholders of the Borough of Whitchurch, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Selwyn and John Conduit, Eſqrs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Freeholders holders of the Borough of Whitchurch, beg Leave to expreſs the Fulneſs of their Joy on the happy Alliance made between your Majeſty's Royal Family and the illuſtrious Houſe of Orange. From ſuch an Union your Kingdoms much rejoice, remembring the Bleſſings derived to them from that Family, who have ever been the Aſſertors of Religion and Liberty, and all that is truly valuable in Life, and who perfected their virtuous Labours, in being (under God) the great Means of eſtabliſhing your Royal Family in theſe Kingdoms.

May the Continuance of ſuch Bleſſings attend your Majeſty and your People; may every Branch of your Royal Family, thoſe Ornaments of the Crown, add Strength and Happineſs to your Poſterity; and that your virtuous Care and Endeavours for this Country may meet with ſuitable Returns from a moſt grateful and affectionate People, are the hearty Prayers of, May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common Council, and other Inhabitants of the King's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in the County of Kent, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Roger Meredith, Bart. their Recorder. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common Council, and other Inhabitants of the King's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in the County of Kent.

WE beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with Hearts full of Gratitude for the Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt auſpicious Reign: Bleſſings ſecured to us at the Time of the utmoſt Danger by your Majeſty's Royal Predeceſſor King William the Third of Glorious Memory.

Much is it to be wiſhed that that Danger was ſtill freſh in the Memory of every Britiſh Subject: Strong would be then the Senſe in every Breaſt of our Happineſs thus ſecured and tranſmitted to us.

This naturally leads us to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Nuptials of the Princeſs Royal with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange. We cannot but be filled with Joy at an Alliance with a Prince of that illuſtrious Houſe, ſecure in the Proſpect of its apparent Tendency to promote the Good and Welfare of theſe Kingdoms.

Long may be your Majeſty's Reign over us, and vain the Efforts of your Enemies ſecret and open. May all Oppoſition fall before you; and Faction ceaſe and be no more.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir William Saunderſon, Knight of the Bath. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly,

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE beg Leave on this ſolemn Occaſion, humbly to congratulate your Majeſty, and to expreſs, in the ſincereſt Manner, our Senſe of your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and provident Care of your People, and of all Europe, in the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

It adds much to our Satisfaction, that when we reflect on the Happineſs we promiſe to ourſelves from this deſirable Event, we at the ſame Time ſee a grateful Tribute paid to the glorious Memory of the late King William, in beſtowing the moſt valuable Preſent this Nation has to make, on a Prince ſo nearly allied to its great Deliverer.

To ſet Bounds to Tyranny and Superſtition, ſeems to have been an Honour (in theſe later Ages) peculiarly reſerv'd to the illuſtrious Houſe of Naſſau: Of whoſe Princes, it may with Truth be ſaid, that they never govern'd a People, whoſe Religion and Liberty they did not firſt reſcue and preſerve, and afterwards effectually eſtabliſh and provide for.

'Tis to the greateſt of thoſe Beneſactors of Mankind, we owe the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign, and the Proſpect of their long Continuance under the Male Line of your auguſt Family. But ſhould that fail (which God forbid) we have yet Reaſon to expect, from this happy Union, a Race of Princes (Emulous of the Virtues of their noble Anceſtors) whoſe Ambition it ſhall be to curb future Oppreſſors and ſupport the ſmall Remains of Liberty and true Religion, now left in the World.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid City, the 25th Day of March, 1734.

The

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Excellency General Wade, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the auſpicious Marriage of the Princeſs Royal of Great Britain with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

We have with Pleaſure and Satisfaction beheld that Joy and Zeal which the whole Kingdom has demonſtrated upon this ſolemn Occaſion: But we hope your Majeſty will believe us more particularly intereſted in the Happineſs of the Prince of Orange, inaſmuch as our Waters have been inſtrumental towards the Preſervation of a Life ſo uſeful to all Europe, ſo agreeable to this Nation, and ſo endearing to your illuſtrious Family.

Every Perſon who wiſhes well to the Proteſtant Religion and Liberty, has the higheſt Obligations to pray for the Proſperity of your Majeſty's Government, and the Continuance of your Health: But if any Diſorder, incident to human Nature, ſhould befal your ſacred Perſon, or any Branch of your Royal Family, we hope that Bath will be always of ſignal Service towards your Recovery: And we can, with the utmoſt Sincerity, aſſure your Majeſty, that the miraculous Cures of our Waters ſhall not be more eminent, than the untainted Loyalty of our Inhabitants.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid City, this 6th Day of April, 1734.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, in the County of Kent, has been preſented to his Majeſty by David Papillon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

THE Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, in the County of Kent, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of her Highneſs the Princeſs Royal with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

The People of this Nation, and in particular, your Majeſty's ever loyal Subjects of this your ancient Town and Port of New Romney, will have Reaſon always to retain a grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's good Intentions towards them in promoting this happy Union, as it gives them a further Proſpect of Princes from ſuch illuſtrious Families as have ſo greatly diſtinguiſhed themſelves in the Cauſe of Liberty and the Proteſtant Religion.

May your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort the Queen live to ſee this happy Pair bleſſed with a numerous Iſſue, imitating the great Examples of their illuſtrious Predeceſſors, which will convey many Bleſſings, not to this Age alone, but to the lateſt Poſterity.

By Order of Common Council,
H. Wightwick, Mayor.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport, in the Iſle of Wight, in the County of Southampton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Montagu, Governour of the Iſle of Wight. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport, in the Iſle of Wight, in the County of Southampton.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the late happy Nuptials of the Princeſs Royal with the Prince of Orange.

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure we obſerve, that this auſpicious Marriage hath given an univerſal Satisfaction throughout the Kingdom; a ſure Sign of a grateful Remembrance of the infinite Benefits procured to this Nation in Defence of our Religion and Liberties by our great Deliverer King William the Third of glorious and immortal Memory, to whom his Highneſs the Prince of Orange is ſo nearly allied both in Blood and Virtues.

Permit us, Sir, to return our unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, for your great Care and Wiſdom in forming and concluding this Alliance; an Alliance, from which we cannot but promiſe ourſelves a farther Security in the the Support of our Liberties, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe.

We ſhall always acknowledge, that we have in all Reſpects exeprienced your Majeſty's great Regard and fatherly Tenderneſs to your People; and that in this ſignal Inſtance, as well as in every thing elſe throughout the Courſe of your Reign, we are convinced that you have conſtantly made the Happineſs and Welfare of your People the only Rule and Meaſure of your Actions.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous; that her Royal Highneſs and the Prince of Orange may long enjoy the utmoſt Perfection of Happineſs; that their Marriage may be crowned with a princely Iſſue to inherit the many eminent Virtues and amiable Qualities of their Royal Progenitors, is the ſincere Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Abery, Eſq; Mayor of the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dunmore. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IN the moſt dutiful and humble Manner we beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on the happy Marriage between her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Royal, and his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange. This Reunion with the illuſtrious Houſe of Naſſau, to which Europe owes ſo much, and this Nation (under God) all their religious and civil Rights, is a freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Regard for the Good and Welfare of your People.

It is with the utmoſt Satisfaction, we obſerve ſo univerſal a Pleaſure amongſt all Ranks and Conditions of People on this joyful Occaſion; and to us it appears a ſure Teſtimony, that your Majeſty's Subjects have neither forgot to whom they owe the Bleſſings they enjoy, nor by whom theſe Bleſſings are preſerved and continued to them.

As we are truly ſenſible of, and feel the happy Effects of your Majeſty's wiſe and juſt Government, of your ſteady and prudent Adminiſtration; ſo we heartily pray, that the Affection and Obedience of your Majeſty's Subjects may be as general and unfeigned, as your Majeſty's Endeavours for their Good are unwearied and univerſal; that all artful Inſinuations to diſturb the publick Peace may prove as abortive as the Cauſes of them are groundleſs; that your Majeſty may long and happily reign in the Hearts of your People; and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Line to inherit the Crown of theſe Realms, and your princely Virtues.

Given under our common Seal at Reading, the 8th Day of April, 1734.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the City of Winchester, has been preſented to his Majeſty by George Bridges and Norton Powlett, Jun. Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Lymmington. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the City of Winchester.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

A Prince of that illuſtrious Family muſt always be honoured and eſteemed by this Nation, while we gratefully remember the Obligations we owe to our great Deliverer King William, who firſt preſerved our Religion and Liberties by the Revolution, and afterwards perpetuated thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings to us by ſettling the Succeſſion of the Crown in your Majeſty's Royal Family.

We beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humble Thanks for this, among many other Inſtances of your paternal Care of your Subjects, and we wiſh that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and glorious over a free, dutiful, and affectionate People.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereto affixed our common Seal, at a Common Council held in the Guildhall of our City, the 6th Day of April, in the Seventh Year of your Majeſty's moſt happy Reign, &c.
